

Agent: Peter MacFarlane

CAROLINE GRACE-CASSIDY
AUTHOR/WRITER/ACTRESS

Caroline Grace-Cassidy began her acting career on the BAFTA winning CUSTERS' LAST STAND UP playing Mary Mull. Since then she has gone on to appear in numerous productions for the BBC/ITV/RTE/TG4 & TV3. Her film career has seen her work with such respected directors as Jim Sheridan (In America), Aisling Walsh (Damage), Dearbhla Walsh (The Tudors) & David Gordon Green (Your Highness) to date.

Caroline has written four bestselling novels – ALREADY TAKEN, WHEN LOVE TAKES OVER, THE OTHER SIDE OF WONDERFUL and I ALWAYS KNEW. Her latest novel THE WEEK I RUINED MY LIFE was published on the 24th June 2016.

She is a Creative Director of Smart Blondes Productions; they have written and produced four successful short films that have played at festivals all over the world.

Caroline has co-written her first feature film GIRLS WEEKEND that has been picked up by Resurgent Films in LA and went into production May 2016. She is also a regular panellist on Ireland's popular all female talk show 'Middy'.