THE PAIRING – Drama series

Writer,

A drama set in a dystopian future and based upon the idea that love at first sight is a bond that extends to mean that one partner is instantly inseparable from the other.

THE PAIRING – Novel

Writer,

'If I were to say there was someone out there for everyone - someone to love you and for you to love, someone to be happy with - you might think I was an old romantic. You'd be wrong.

It's a simple fact of today's society, not a romantic notion. When you're born into this world, your partner - whoever that may be - is born to be with you, and you with them.'
