PLAYERS

Kitchen Sink Comedy TV – 30”

A community centre “THE ARTS” is forced by council officials to close unless they can prove to the powers above to be a profitable and a professional outfit.

A group of extraordinary volunteers, led by working class heroes and married couple MAGS, BILLY and some truly inspirational residents pull together to rise against the system and all hell breaks loose. Each character and their personal stories draw great parallels to characters and stories that exist in some of our finest British stage plays of the past. Penned by some of our most revolutionary and aspirational writers.

Pilot script available.

STEP ON.

Comedy/Dramedy TV – 30”

BILLY is fresh out of rehab and emotionally raw as she bounces off the walls, desperate to go home, rebuild her family and get back into the fucked up game of life. We follow and root for our unique anti-hero as she is guided by her deceased father GED who continues to pull the strings from another realm. But Billy is keen to take revenge for her fathers murder and find her real mum. We see her struggle with family, criminality and life on the outlaw fringe. This is an outrageous story full of laughter, heartache, injury and the absurd triumph of survival.

Pilot script available.

THE LAW OF TALION

Crime Thriller – 60” Four Part Mini-Series.

PETE NEWTON, a notorious crime boss, is executed at his home in Salford, throwing the criminal empire and the local community in turmoil. Many people, connected to Newton, have their own justified reasons to take him out: The story evolves around a Muslim family man and self employed worker NISH, wife CANDICE, daughter SHAYMAR, young firm member JENKSY and THOMAS FLYNNE who is the head of S.O.C.A.

Each individual is connected to the murder of Newton and as a result have become each others nemesis, on the hook for a crashing fall, desperate to position themselves for their own salvation.

Pilot script available.

BARS & BIRTH by Stephen Lord & Jenny Berry.

Theatre – 120”

Inspired by a series of poetry workshops with prisoners in the North West Of England.

In a flurry of confessional monologues, we witness incarcerated mother JANICE give birth and the aftermath.

Enter into the world of Janice’s family: Chaotic, loving and raw.

A new play full of humour, drama and heartache.

Play available.
